To: The Commission

PETITION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Maritime Communications/Land Mobile, LLC (“Maritime:”), by its attorney and pursuant to Section 405(a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. § 405, and Section 1.106(a)(1) of the Commission’s Rules and Regulations, 47 C.F.R. § 1.106(a)(1), seeks reconsideration of the Memorandum Opinion and Order (FCC 14-133; rel. Sept. 11, 2014) (“MO&O”) in the captioned matter insofar as it denied the request for *Second Thursday*¹ relief and the application to assign the Maritime licenses to Choctaw Holdings, LLC.

¹ Second Thursday Corp., 22 FCC 2d 515, recon. granted, 25 FCC 2d 112 (1970); see also LaRose v. FCC, 494 F.2d 1145 (D.C. Cir 1974).

I. INTRODUCTION

1. The Commission denied Second Thursday relief solely because Donald DePriest might thereby be released from liability to creditors holding Maritime promissory notes that he had personally guaranteed. If the creditors recover from Maritime in the bankruptcy proceeding, the notes would be satisfied, and Mr. DePriest would no longer be obligated. The Commission reasoned that this potential indirect benefit precludes Second Thursday relief.²

2. The Commission's legal conclusion is in error. As demonstrated in Section II, below, the Commission has frequently granted Second Thursday relief notwithstanding the possibility that an alleged wrongdoer might receive an indirect benefit in the form of release from secondary financial liability.³ In the past forty years, the Commission has never before denied relief on this basis where there was not also some direct benefit to the alleged wrongdoer.

3. Furthermore, as demonstrated in Section III, below, Mr. DePriest is insolvent and therefore judgment proof. Holders of the personal guarantees have no hope of recovering from him. Granting Second Thursday relief will not benefit Mr. DePriest, since he has no ability to satisfy the guarantees whether or not the creditors collect under the reorganization plan. Denial of Second Thursday relief, however, will seriously harm not only those holding the guarantees, but all other innocent creditors as well.

4. Accordingly, the MO&O should be reconsidered, Maritime should be afforded Second Thursday relief, and the captioned assignment applications should be granted.

² Second Thursday Corp., 22 FCC 2d 515, recon. granted, 25 FCC 2d 112 (1970); see also LaRose v. FCC, 494 F.2d 1145 (D.C. Cir 1974).

³ Concurrently with the filing of this pleading, due to the private and sensitive nature of business and personal financial information, Maritime and Mr. DePriest have requested confidentiality as to a limited portion of this pleading and some of the supporting exhibits. Two versions of this pleading are being filed, one a redacted version for public view, and the other an unredacted version submitted under seal.

II. SECOND THURSDAY RELIEF MAY NOT BE DENIED SOLELY ON THE BASIS OF A POTENTIAL INDIRECT BENEFIT FROM ELIMINATION OF SECONDARY LIABILITY.

5. As part of its public interest mandate the Commission is required to “accommodate[]the policies of federal bankruptcy law with those of the Communications Act.” LaRose v. FCC, 494 F.2d 1145, 1146-1147 n.2 (D.C. Cir. 1974). The Commission recognizes that it “is obliged to reconcile its policies under the Communications Act with the policies of other federal laws and statutes, including the federal bankruptcy laws in particular.” Dale J. Parsons, Jr., 10 FCC Rcd 2718, 2720 (1995). The principle enunciated in LaRose demands that the Commission “protect innocent creditors so long as the transaction in question does not unduly interfere with objectives of the Act.” Urban Radio I, LLC, 29 FCC Rcd 6389, 6391 (2014). This requires “an ad hoc balancing of the possible injury to regulatory authority that might flow from wrongdoers’ realizing benefits against the public interest in innocent creditors’ recovery from the sale and assignment of the license to a qualified party.” Family Broadcasting, Inc., 25 FCC Rcd 7591, 7592 (2010); WorldCom, Inc., 18 FCC Rcd 26484, 26500 (2003).

6. The Commission’s only reason for denying Second Thursday relief is its assumption that recovery by innocent creditors pursuant to the bankruptcy reorganization plan might result in Mr. DePriest avoiding secondary liability on personal guarantees he had given to Maritime lenders. The Commission, correctly, does not assert that Mr. DePriest would receive any direct benefit from the proposed transaction. Nor does the Commission explain how its concern about potential indirect benefit is sufficient to overcome the interests of all the innocent creditors, including those who have no personal guarantees.

7. The MO&O was an unexpected departure from a long line of precedent on this issue. Indeed, the rule has been that the interests of innocent creditors outweighs any concerns about potential indirect benefit related to guarantor liability. Under the principles laid out by the LaRose court some forty years ago, the Commission has consistently held that release of an alleged wrongdoer from secondary liability does not dictate denial of Second Thursday relief.

The Commission has explained in Family Broadcasting:

[E]ven if the [alleged wrongdoers] would receive indirect tax benefits from grant of the Application, we would find that those benefits are “outweighed by equitable considerations in favor of innocent creditors.” Equitable considerations strongly favor ... protect[ing] ... innocent creditors ... whose debts will be fully satisfied if the assignment is approved but who will receive virtually no recovery if it is denied. ... [D]enying the Application would “effectively deprive ... creditors of any significant recovery of the moneys they have advanced.”

Family Broadcasting, Inc., 25 FCC Rcd at 7599.⁴

8. The consistent rule has been that “incidental benefit” from elimination of “potential secondary liability” does not require denial of relief for innocent creditors. KOZN FM Stereo 99 Ltd., Debtor-in-Possession, 6 FCC Rcd 257 (1991). See also, Family Broadcasting, Inc., 25 FCC Rcd 7591 (2010); WorldCom, Inc., 18 FCC Rcd 26484 (2003); MobileMedia, 14 FCC Rcd 8017, 8023 (1999); NewSouth Broadcasting, Inc., 8 FCC Rcd 1272, 1273 (1993); KOZN FM Stereo 99 Ltd., 5 FCC Rcd 2849, 2850 (1990); Pyle Communications of Beaumont, Inc., 4 FCC Rcd 8625, 8626 (1989); Seraphim Corp., 4 FCC Rcd 8819, 8821 (1989); Davis Broadcasting Co., 67 FCC 2d 872, 875 (1977); Hertz Broadcasting, 57 FCC 2d 183, 184 (1976).

9. Nor does the magnitude of the secondary liability disturb this principle. The Commission speculates that more than $11 million may be subject to the personal guarantees, and then concludes: “Under Commission precedent, this amount is too large to be deemed minor or incidental.” MO&O at ¶ 23. But the three “precedents” cited in support (id. at n. 66), do not establish such an absolute standard as the Commission suggests, and none of them supports denial of Second Thursday relief solely on the basis of secondary liability concerns. In Pyle Communications of Beaumont, 4 FCC Rcd 8625 (1989), the Commission did not deny Second Thursday relief, but actually granted it notwithstanding possible elimination of secondary liability. In Mid-State Broadcasting Co., 61 FCC 2d 196 (1976), the Commission found that there would be direct benefits in addition to the indirect extinguishment of secondary liability. In Capital City Communications, Inc., 33 FCC 2d 703 (1972), Second Thursday relief was denied because the bankruptcy petition had been prompted not by financial problems, but rather for the primary purpose of escaping a basic qualifications hearing. 33 FCC 2d at 708-711. The discussion of secondary liability in that opinion, 33 FCC 2d at 711-712, is dicta.⁵

10. Moreover, the LaRose case, which came two years after Capital City, elevated the weight that is to be given to the plight of innocent creditors. By contrast, in Hertz Broadcasting Second Thursday relief was granted notwithstanding substantial loan guarantees that exceeded the proposed sale price and amounted to almost 90 percent of the debtor's total liability. 57 FCC 2d at 184. Denying Second Thursday relief solely on the basis of secondary liability concerns is inimical to LaRose and the public interest policy of protecting innocent creditors. It requires those creditors holding guarantees to expend yet more funds and resources to litigate and obtain judgments, with no certainty of collecting even then. At the same time it denies any recovery at all to creditors who do not hold guarantees.

⁵ In Family Broadcasting, the possibility that innocent creditors would be paid in full was a public interest factor dictating in favor of Second Thursday relief. By contrast, in this case the Commission inexplicably denied Second Thursday relief because of the likelihood "that proceeds from the assignment of [Maritime's] licenses would be more than enough to repay ... creditors in full, thereby effectively removing any liability on the personal guarantees." MO&O at ¶ 23. To deny Second Thursday relief to all creditors with the express purpose of ensuring no recovery by a fraction of the creditors whose loans were guaranteed turns LaRose on its head.

III. IF THE SECONDARY OBLIGOR IS JUDGMENT PROOF, INNOCENT CREDITORS SHOULD BE AFFORDED SECOND THURSDAY RELIEF AND POSSIBLE RECOVERY FROM THE PRIMARY OBLIGOR.

11. Even if potential release from indirect secondary liability to innocent creditors were otherwise proper grounds for denying relief, if the secondary obligor is insolvent, the balancing of interests tips overwhelmingly in favor of the innocent creditors. As will be shown, Mr. DePriest is judgment proof. The guaranteed creditors have no hope of recovering from him.⁶

12. Table 1 lists the MCLM creditors holding the subject personal guarantees and the amount each would possibly receive under the bankruptcy plan of reorganization. This information was compiled from the official records of the bankruptcy court.⁷

⁶ This detailed information was not presented earlier in large part because Maritime could not have predicted that the Commission would depart from more than forty years of consistent precedent and deny Secondary Thursday Relief based solely on secondary liability concerns. In any event, based on recent events occurring after release of the MO&O there is also new information. Within the past few days Mr. DePriest was served with notice that four creditors have filed a petition for involuntary Chapter 7 bankruptcy against him. In re Donald R. DePriest, Case No. 14-135322 (U.S. Bankr. N.D. Miss., filed Sept. 21, 2014).

13. The theory as stated in the MO&O is that, if the guaranteed creditors do not recover from Maritime in the bankruptcy, they would have recourse against Mr. DePriest. In reality, most of the listed creditors have not attempted to enforce the guarantees because they know that such an effort would be futile. Exhibit 3 is a collection of abstracts of unsatisfied judgments against Mr. DePriest. The judgments are listed in Table 2.⁸ The tabulation shows only the judgment amount. It does not include assessed court costs, awarded legal fees, or accruing interest, so the actual aggregate amount is considerably larger than that listed.

Three of the judgments—those of Clark & Whitney Bullock, Fred Goad, and Retzer Resources—are indeed based on the personal guarantees. One of these judgments was obtained nearly six years ago, and one over four years ago, and another more than a year ago. Yet none of them has been collected. This is not surprising, in that these three judgments add up to $1,008,087, a significant sum, but a small fraction of the over $16 Million in total unsatisfied judgments. In denying Second Thursday relief, the Commission leaves all innocent creditors—not only the guarantee holders—with no meaningful recourse. This is premised on the theory that the guarantee holders can recover from Mr. DePriest. In reality, the guarantee holders will, assuming they are willing to incur the legal expenses to obtain judgments, merely be added to an already long list of unpaid plaintiffs, increasing the total outstanding judgments to over $26 Million.

IV. Conclusion

16. The denial of Second Thursday relief on grounds that Mr. DePriest might be relieved of secondary liability is contrary to the principles enunciated by the court in LaRose, would result in significant harm to innocent creditors, and would thwart the implementation of legitimate bankruptcy policy. This erroneous legal conclusion also rests on the false factual premise that recovery under the guarantees is even possible. The fact is that Mr. DePriest is judgment proof, precluding any hope of recovery. Moreover, it is inequitable deny relief to all creditors because a fraction of them hold guarantees. Established precedent, the public interest, and principles of equity require that the MO&O be reconsidered, reversed, and that the captioned assignment applications be expeditiously granted.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

The instructions and definitions below are general explanations of the law. In certain circumstances, such as bankruptcy cases not filed voluntarily by the debtor, exceptions to these general rules may apply.

Items to be completed in Proof of Claim form

Court, Name of Debtor, and Case Number:

Fill in the federal judicial district in which the bankruptcy case was filed (for example, Central District of California), the debtor's full name, and the case number. If the creditor received a notice of the case from the bankruptcy court, all of this information is at the top of the notice.

Creditor's Name and Address:

Fill in the name of the person or entity asserting a claim and the name and address of the person who should receive notices issued during the bankruptcy case. A separate space is provided for the payment address if it differs from the notice address. The creditor has a continuing obligation to keep the court informed of its current address. See Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (FRBP) 2002(g).

1. Amount of Claim as of Date Case Filed:

State the total amount owed to the creditor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. Follow the instructions concerning whether to complete items 4 and 5. Check the box if interest or other charges are included in the claim.

2. Basis for Claim:

State the type of debt or how it was incurred. Examples include goods sold, money loaned, services performed, personal injury/wrongful death, car loan, mortgage note, and credit card. If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information. You may be required to provide additional disclosure if an interested party objects to the claim.

3. Last Four Digits of Any Number by Which Creditor Identifies Debtor:

State only the last four digits of the debtor's account or other number used by the creditor to identify the debtor.

3a. Debtor May Have Scheduled Account As:

Report a change in the creditor's name, a transferred claim, or any other information that clarifies a difference between this proof of claim and the claim as scheduled by the debtor.

3b. Uniform Claim Identifier:

If you use a uniform claim identifier, you may report it here. A uniform claim identifier is an optional 24-character identifier that certain large creditors use to facilitate electronic payment in chapter 13 cases.

4. Secured Claim:

Check whether the claim is fully or partially secured. Skip this section if the claim is entirely unsecured. (See Definitions.) If the claim is secured, check the box for the nature and value of property that secures the claim, attach copies of lien documentation, and state, as of the date of the bankruptcy filing, the annual interest rate (and whether it is fixed or variable), and the amount past due on the claim.

5. Amount of Claim Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. § 507 (a).

If any portion of the claim falls into any category shown, check the appropriate box(es) and state the amount entitled to priority. (See Definitions.) A claim may be partly priority and partly non-priority. For example, in some of the categories, the law limits the amount entitled to priority.

6. Credits:

An authorized signature on this proof of claim serves as an acknowledgment that when calculating the amount of the claim, the creditor gave the debtor credit for any payments received toward the debt.

7. Documents:

Attach redacted copies of any documents that show the debt exists and a lien secures the debt. You must also attach copies of documents that evidence perfection of any security interest. You may also attach a summary in addition to the documents themselves. FRBP 3001(c) and (d). If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit disclosing confidential health care information. Do not send original documents, as attachments may be destroyed after scanning.

8. Date and Signature:

The individual completing this proof of claim must sign and date it. FRBP 9011. If the claim is filed electronically, FRBP 5005(a)(2) authorizes courts to establish local rules specifying what constitutes a signature. If you sign this form, you declare under penalty of perjury that the information provided is true and correct to the best of your knowledge, information, and reasonable belief. Your signature is also a certification that the claim meets the requirements of FRBP 9011(b). Whether the claim is filed electronically or in person, if your name is on the signature line, you are responsible for the declaration. Print the name and title, if any, of the creditor or other person authorized to file this claim. State the filer's address and telephone number if it differs from the address given on the top of the form for purposes of receiving notices. If the claim is filed by an authorized agent, attach a complete copy of any power of attorney, and provide both the name of the individual filing the claim and the name of the agent. If the authorized agent is a servicer, identify the corporate servicer as the company. Criminal penalties apply for making a false statement on a proof of claim.

A debtor is the person, corporation, or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case.

Creditor

A creditor is a person, corporation, or other entity owed a debt by the debtor that arose on or before the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. §101 (10).

Claim

A claim is the creditor's right to receive payment on a debt owed by the debtor that arose on the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Proof of Claim

A proof of claim is a form used by the creditor to indicate the amount of the debt owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. The creditor must file the form with the clerk of the same bankruptcy court in which the bankruptcy case was filed.

Secured Claim Under 11 U.S.C. §506(a)

A secured claim is one backed by a lien on property of the debtor. The claim is secured so long as the creditor has the right to be paid from the property prior to other creditors. The amount of the secured claim cannot exceed the value of the property. Any amount owed to the creditor in excess of the value of the property is an unsecured claim. Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car.

A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment is a lien. A claim also may be secured if the creditor owes the debtor money (has a right to setoff).

Unsecured Claim

An unsecured claim is one that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be partly unsecured if the amount of the claim exceeds the value of the property on which the creditor has a lien.

Claim Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. §507(a)

Priority claims are certain categories of unsecured claims that are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims.

Redacted

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. A creditor should redact and use only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax-identification, or financial-account number, all but the initials of a minor's name and only the year of any person's date of birth.

Evidence of Perfection

Evidence of perfection may include a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, financing statement, or other document showing that the lien has been filed or recorded.

INFORMATIONAcknowledgment of Filing of Claim

To receive acknowledgment of your filing, you may either enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this proof of claim or you may access the court's PACER system (www.pacer.psc.uscourts.gov) for a small fee to view your filed proof of claim.

Offers to Purchase a Claim

Certain entities are in the business of purchasing claims for an amount less than the face value of the claims. One or more of these entities may contact the creditor and offer to purchase the claim. Some of the written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court or the debtor. The creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if the creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of such claim is subject to FRBP 3001(e), any applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.), and any applicable orders of the bankruptcy court.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

The instructions and definitions below are general explanations of the law. In certain circumstances, such as bankruptcy cases not filed voluntarily by the debtor, there may be exceptions to these general rules.

Items to be completed in Proof of Claim form

Court, Name of Debtor, and Case Number:

Fill in the federal judicial district where the bankruptcy case was filed (for example, Central District of California), the bankruptcy debtor's name, and the bankruptcy case number. If the creditor received a notice of the case from the bankruptcy court, all of this information is located at the top of the notice.

Creditor's Name and Address:

Fill in the name of the person or entity asserting a claim and the name and address of the person who should receive notices issued during the bankruptcy case. A separate space is provided for the payment address if it differs from the notice address. The creditor has a continuing obligation to keep the court informed of its current address. See Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (FRBP) 2002(g).

1. Amount of Claim as of Date Case Filed:

State the total amount owed to the creditor on the date of the Bankruptcy filing. Follow the instructions concerning whether to complete items 4 and 5. Check the box if interest or other charges are included in the claim.

2. Basis for Claim:

State the type of debt or how it was incurred. Examples include goods sold, money loaned, services performed, personal injury/wrongful death, car loan, mortgage note, and credit card. If the claim is based on the delivery of health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information. You may be required to provide additional disclosure if the trustee or another party in interest files an objection to your claim.

3. Last Four Digits of Any Number by Which Creditor Identifies Debtor:

State only the last four digits of the debtor's account or other number used by the creditor to identify the debtor.

3a. Debtor May Have Scheduled Account As:

Use this space to report a change in the creditor's name, a transferred claim, or any other information that clarifies a difference between this proof of claim and the claim as scheduled by the debtor.

4. Secured Claim:

Check the appropriate box and provide the requested information if the claim is fully or partially secured. Skip this section if the claim is entirely unsecured. (See DEFINITIONS, below.) State the type and the value of property that secures the claim, attach copies of lien documentation, and state annual interest rate and the amount past due on the claim as of the date of the bankruptcy filing.

5. Amount of Claim Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. §507(a):

If any portion of your claim falls in one or more of the listed categories, check the appropriate box(es) and state the amount entitled to priority. (See DEFINITIONS, below.) A claim may be partly priority and partly non-priority. For example, in some of the categories, the law limits the amount entitled to priority.

6. Credits:

An authorized signature on this proof of claim serves as an acknowledgment that when calculating the amount of the claim, the creditor gave the debtor credit for any payments received toward the debt.

7. Documents:

Attach to this proof of claim form redacted copies documenting the existence of the debt and of any lien securing the debt. You may also attach a summary. You must also attach copies of documents that evidence perfection of any security interest. You may also attach a summary. FRBP 3001(c) and (d). If the claim is based on the delivery of health care goods or services, see instruction 2. Do not send original documents, as attachments may be destroyed after scanning.

Date and Signature:

The person filing this proof of claim must sign and date it. FRBP 9011. If the claim is filed electronically, FRBP 5005(a)(2), authorizes courts to establish local rules specifying what constitutes a signature. Print the name and title, if any, of the creditor or other person authorized to file this claim. State the filer's address and telephone number if it differs from the address given on the top of the form for purposes of receiving notices. Attach a complete copy of any power of attorney. Criminal penalties apply for making a false statement on a proof of claim.
